Quorum Established & Call to Order: 7:00 PM

Minutes of Prior Meeting: Minutes of the March 18, 2021 meeting were presented. Councilman Solis made a motion to accept the minutes and Councilman Smith seconded. The motion passed 4-0.

Presentation: None

Public Comments: None

Council Member Comments: Councilwoman Nelson said that the children really liked the Easter Basket Drive-Thru and asked if Mayfest was going to be held and Administrator Wilhite explained that the CCCFA had a meeting and that they decided there would not be enough time to schedule with for the Car Show. They are planning for Oktoberfest with the Bar-B-Que cookoff, games, Car Show, tractor pull. He also asked if anyone is not getting the emails to let him know. The Fourth of July event was discussed, and it was decided to have the fireworks on the 4th and the public could come earlier to the park. Administrator Wilhite reported that The Del Valle Alumnae is planning to have two reunions to accommodate the large crowds. The cost would be $25, and it would be catered. He said that Travis County had approved full capacity for events.

Public Hearing: The Rezoning of the Carl Cole Property:

This item was tabled at the March Council meeting for the rezoning of the 10-acre lot on the corner belonging to Carl Cole. Mr. Cole had requested that the 70.7190 acres at the corner of Wright Rd. and FM 1327 be rezoned commercial for a planned Fuel Station. Administrator Wilhite explained that they would need the Rezoning and Special Permits and that Engineer Dan Heijl recommended that the City would need the site plan, traffic study fire protection, drainage, driveway, and road maintenance plans. He asked that the owners provide plating, easements, driveway, and internal road responsibilities. Mr. Heijl had recommended not approving the project until all the plans are including TX-Dot, ESDs and Creedmoor-Maha Water. Attorney Bird advised that the Council could approve the zoning change and wait for the Engineer's report to approve the Special Permit. Councilman Jakobeit then made the motion to rezone the Cole property commercial. Councilwoman Nelson seconded the motion and it passed 4-0.

Councilwoman Nelson made the motion to approve the special permit if all engineering conditions are met. Councilman Solis seconded the motion and it passed 4-0. Councilwoman Nelson then asked that Dan Heil be included on all emails concerning this development.

The Public Hearing adjourned, and the regular Council Meeting reconvened at 8:03 pm.

Discussion on: The Project Creedmoor 216

Eric Willis reported that they were doing an environmental study that that included street design and soil effect for foundations and a traffic analysis of impact and design. He plans to have a development agreement by the next Council meeting. He said that the meeting with TDS was beneficial helpful in knowing what the City wanted and he planned to meet with Creedmoor-Travis MUD and Creedmoor-Maha Water Corp. next month. Administrator Wilhite inquired as to the plan for the width of the roads. He explained that the roads should be 58'-60' feet wide to accommodate emergency vehicles with cars parked on both sides making it a safety issue.

Financials: On attached printed sheets. Call Mrs. Ortiz if there are any questions.

Administrator Comments: Administrator Wilhite said that a few funerals gatherings had been held and upcoming graduation parties had been booked. There are a lot of parties booked for 2022. He also commented that Ralph Warren had said that Travis Co. were distributing more Covid-19 vaccines for ages 16 and up. Administrator Wilhite had agreed to have it held at the Community Center, but he hasn't confirmed it. He then explained that all the money for the park has been spent. The long tables on the island are finished. Also, there will be a survey will be done to tie all the separate pieces of park land together. A security fence will be installed around the utility area. There has been illegal dumping and use of the City's dumpsters. He wants to include a maintenance building in next year's budget for security of the City's equipment.

He also reported that tax notices had gone out and that the City should expect twenty million dollars in revenue for this year however, the tax rate would have to be lowered due to the increase in property values. He also stated that there were some new opportunities for the City as some land was to be donated and he hopes for more.

Administrator Wilhite also asked about having items on the electronic sign like Mama Mary's Pumping Patch or BeeMindful bee removal. The Council agreed to any for community information. Councilwoman Nelson suggested including school fundraising.

Mayor Comments: Mayor Klestinec said she would like to have a dedication for the park and memorials. She also asked if the Boy Scouts or VFW could come to burn the City's old flags.

Executive Session: None

Attorney Comments: None

Adjourned: The meeting was adjourned at 8:15pm. Councilman Jakobeit made the motion to adjourn, and Councilwoman Nelson seconded the motion. The motion passed: 4-0.
